

ROCK CLIMBING WEEKEND

JULIAN ALPS

Sleeping at Corsi Hut we will have the opportunity to climb on Ago's and Campanile di Villaco's sunny walls and not have to return to the valley in the evening, tired from climbing. This is the best way to really "feel" the mountain, taking in its slow rhythms against frenetic ordinary life. We are going to analyze climbing and safety techniques in the climbing crag close to the hut and then apply them on sport or traditional multipitch routes.

PROGRAM:

Day 1°: meeting in the morning and ascent to Rifugio Corsi; practice climbing in the sport climbing cliff close to the hut. We are going to analyze safety and climbing techniques both: climbing on different rock formations, belay stations, abseiling.

Day 2°: climb up of Ago or Campanile di Villaco – classic rock route with traditional protection – and get down in the valley.

Program could be changed cause organization problem or meteorological conditions.
